What is Great Taste?

Great Taste, organised by the Guild of Fine Food, is the acknowledged benchmark for fine food and drink. It has been described as the 'Oscars' of the food world and the 'epicurean equivalent of the Booker prize'. Quite simply the Great Taste logo is the sign you can trust when buying food and drink in your local, quality retailer.

What are the British Pie Awards?

The Pie is one of the icons of British cuisine. Savory or sweet, the British eat millions of them every year.

These British Pie Awards are a national celebration of British Pies in all their varieties and they have been running since 2009.

The Awards are held in Melton Mowbray, the Rural Capital of Food, and hosted by the Melton Mowbray Pork Pie Association

For the purposes of the Awards a pie is defined as the following: 'A Pie is deemed to be a filling totally encased in pastry'.

Aims of the award:

- To celebrate the heritage of the British Pie
- To protect and promote regional specialties
- To recognise the craft of bakers, butchers and other producers
- To support British produce
